FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Fort Bend County Honors Fallen Heroes at 2025 Memorial Day Ceremony

(Fort Bend County, Texas) — On Friday, May 23, 2025, Fort Bend County Judge KP George's Office and the Veterans Services Department hosted the county's annual Memorial Day Ceremony at the Historic Courthouse in downtown Richmond. The event brought together veterans, community leaders, families, and residents in a moving tribute to the brave service members who gave their lives in defense of our country.

The ceremony featured the solemn presentation of colors, patriotic musical performances, and heartfelt remarks by Ned Mark, from the Veterans Services Department, as well as other county staff. A moment of silence and a wreath-laying served as powerful reminders of the cost of freedom and the valor of those who made the ultimate sacrifice.

"Memorial Day is more than a ceremony – it is a promise to ensure that their sacrifices were not in vain," said Ned Mark. "We stand today not only in reflection, but in determination to carry forward their legacy."
