Fort Bend County Precinct 4 hosts Earth Day Celebration for the community

FORT BEND COUNTY, TX – Fort Bend County Commissioner Dexter L. McCoy’s Office invites the community to join them on April 13, 2024, to celebrate Earth Day. The day’s activities serve as the office’s first official steps to engage residents in committing to environmental stewardship.

What: Earth Day Community Celebration

Who: Fort Bend County Commissioner McCoy, Fort Bend County Parks, Fort Bend County Libraries, Fort Bend County Animal Services, Texas A&M AgriLife Extension, Curb 2 Compost

When: 10 a.m. to noon, Saturday, April 13, 2024

Where: Four Corners Park, 15700 Old Richmond Road, Sugar Land, Texas 77498

With a range of family-friendly activities, attendees can look forward to:

- Creating biodegradable planters from old newspapers and planting a seed to take home;
- Going on a scavenger hunt to win a prize;
- Donating old towels and blankets to Fort Bend County’s animal shelter;
- Making dog toys out of old clean t-shirts to take home or donate to the animal shelter;
- Learning about composting from Curb to Compost;
- Using leaves to create art;
- Renting a tricycle and helmet; and
- Signing up for library cards with Fort Bend County Libraries.

“This community celebration is just the start, to show all residents the little things they can do, like composting and repurposing everyday items, to make meaningful change in protecting our planet for future generations,” said Commissioner McCoy.

Fort Bend County is home to over 900,000 people and is one of the fastest growing counties and most ethnically diverse counties in the United States. Commissioner McCoy took office in 2023 to serve Fort Bend Precinct 4’s nearly 250,000 residents.
