PRESS RELEASE

Fort Bend County Offices Closed Due to Impending Impact of Tropical Storm Beryl

(FORT BEND, TX) - Fort Bend County Judge KP George today announced that due to the expected impact of Tropical Storm Beryl, all Fort Bend County offices and facilities will be closed on Monday, July 8, 2024.

Fort Bend County offices and facilities are expected to return to normal operations on Tuesday, July 9, 2024. The Fort Bend County Judge's Office and the Office of Homeland Security & Emergency Management will continue to monitor weather conditions throughout the night and will provide updates on county operations should status changes be required.

"The safety and well-being of our county residents and employees are our top priority and this is the best decision to safeguard everyone. I urge everyone to stay informed and prepared in the face of this severe weather emergency," stated Judge George.
