FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Fort Bend County Offices to Remain Open During January 9 National Day of Mourning

(Fort Bend County, Texas) — On Thursday, January 9, 2025, the nation will observe a National Day of Mourning to honor and reflect on the significance of this solemn occasion.

While we honor and reflect on the significance of this day, Fort Bend County is committed to continuing to provide essential services to our residents without interruption. The County announces that all offices will remain open and fully operational, with scheduled meetings, services, and programs proceeding as planned.

We encourage all residents to observe the day meaningfully while recognizing the importance of uninterrupted access to county resources.

If you have any questions or need further information, please get in touch with the Fort Bend County Public Information Office.
