Home Recovery Assistance Now Available for Texans Affected by 2024 Disasters

WHAT:

Texas Land Commissioner Dawn Buckingham, M.D., announced the launch of critical recovery programs to assist residents in 27 federally designated counties affected by multiple disasters in 2024. Homeowners may now apply for assistance to rebuild or receive reimbursement for repairs.

WHO SHOULD APPLY:

Homeowners in eligible counties who are still recovering from storm damage or other federally declared disasters in 2024.

HOW TO APPLY:

Visit recovery.texas.gov/apply for full program details, eligibility information, and to submit an application.

WHY IT MATTERS:

These recovery programs offer vital support for Texas residents still facing hardship from devastating events earlier this year. The Texas General Land Office (GLO) is encouraging widespread community sharing to ensure all eligible Texans are informed.
