Humble Man Arrested for Aggravated Robbery in Richmond

(FORT BEND COUNTY, TX) – A Sheriff's Office investigation into a home invasion-style aggravated robbery that occurred before New Year's Day in Richmond's Grand Vista subdivision resulted in the arrest of Derwin Kleon Clark, 23, of Humble, Texas, north of Houston. Fort Bend County Sheriff's deputies arrested Clark on January 4, 2022 and charged him with Aggravated Robbery.

On December 29, 2021, suspects forcibly entered a residence in the Grant Vista subdivision located in Richmond, Texas. As the suspects fled, they fired multiple gunshots. While no victims were injured by the gunfire, several homes and vehicles were damaged. One victim in this case was transported to a local hospital with non-life threatening injuries sustained during the aggravated robbery.

Clark was placed in custody and remains at the Fort Bend County Jail with a bond set at $150,000. The Texas Anti-Gang Task Force comprised of several Houston Police Department officers assisted in the surveillance and arrest of Clark at his Humble area address.

"The diligent work of our Robbery-Homicide investigators resulted in the quick apprehension of this suspected violent offender," said Sheriff Eric Fagan. "This case remains under investigation."
